

WELCOME TO SOMETHING NEW FROM HOLLY COLE
First Studio Album In Five Years, HOLLY, Set to Release February 9

The new recording, simply titled "HOLLY", is produced by Grammy Award winning producer Russ Titelman (Eric Clapton, Randy Newman, Ricki Lee Jones), and arranged by pianist extraordinaire Larry Goldings. Most of the record was recorded at Sear Sound in NYC using an exemplary cast of both NYC and Toronto musicians including Aaron Davis (Piano), Davide DiRenzo (Drums), David Piltch (Bass), John Johnson (Woodwinds) Larry Goldings- (Hammond B3 Organ), Ben Street (Bass) and also Justin Faulkner (Drums). 'Holly' also includes two vocal duets with the incomparable Wycliffe Gordon.

The recording comes complete with classics including "They Can't Take That Away From Me", "Everybody Loves Somebody" and "Teach Me Tonight" which showcase Holly's dynamic artistry while bringing currency to these timeless tracks. See the full track listing below.

Holly Cole has never been afraid to do or say exactly what she thinks or feels. Not in a standing-on-a-soap-box grand gesture kind of way, but just by doing it! It's the Maritimer in her; that attitude of wanting to cut through the noise and get to the point. It's reflected in her minimalist approach to musical arrangements and often in the material she chooses. As an example, she recognized that simply by nature of being a woman, singing Mose Allison's "Your Mind is on Vacation" brings significant additional currency to Allison's poignant lyrics for both men and women - especially in 2017.

On creating the album, Holly recounts, “When I made this record I didn’t know what to expect. All I knew was that I was excited; excited to work with producer Russ Titelman, excited to work at Sear Sound Studio in New York, a wonderful studio I had recorded songs from my “Temptation” recording in and excited to record with a whole new band that Russ Titelman had assembled.”

HOLLY will be available on digital and streaming platforms as well as physical, both CD and 180 Gram Vinyl.
